

COLORING ACTIVITY

Brilliant Butterflies

Butterflies use their bright colours for more than just looking pretty! Some have big spots on their wings that look like eyes to scare predators into thinking they are much bigger animals. Others use bright warning colours to tell birds they are poisonous and shouldn't be eaten. Some butterflies, even use their colourful wing patterns to help find each other. Use lots of bright colours to colour in these butterflies